The Elmcree herd owned by Dr. A. H. Weiland, Pawnee, Ill., is one of the breed's strongest. They are selling six top female lots.

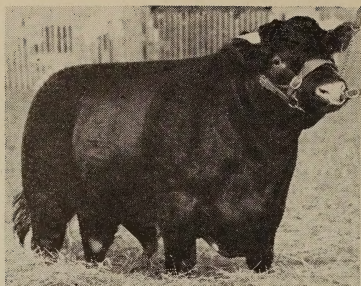

A New Sale That Clicked . . .

To promote a breed, top quality cattle must be made easily available. It is just as important to provide a strong market for good cattle. For many years the Mathers sale has been one of the breed's feature events . . . attracting breeders from every corner of the land. Having come this far, it seemed only logical to make this a two day affair, providing twice the number of cattle.

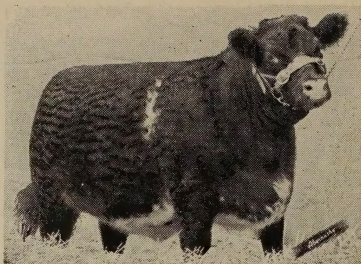

The idea appealed to breeders over a wide area, and in 1960 the first "Best of the Midwest" Show and Sale was held. A crowd of nearly 600 attended, the 17 bulls averaged $618, the entire sale $522, the cattle were sold to buyers from 12 states, and nine different consignors achieved herd averages in excess of $600.

The success of the first sale made the job of getting good ones for the second sale much easier. The offering includes many winners from top shows of 1961. It provides a selection of quality from various bloodlines. The two day sale series will give you the opportunity to strengthen your herd.

Melbourne Rother Queen 14th — Another top female to match our champion and sale topper at the 1960 Best of Midwest Sale, going to Purdue University at $1600. The granddam was the top female in the 1954 Gardhouse sale and came to Melbourne where she has been one of our top cows, producing our junior herd sire, Melbourne Rodney, and three grand females in our cow herd. The dam was sold in the same sale to Martin Katter in Ohio and came to Melbourne when that herd was dispersed. She has produced a bull sold to J. S. Dougherty, Hammond, Illinois, and a heifer sold to John Whitaker, Granville, Illinois. This heifer sells open but we will bring her home and mate her to Calrossie Diamond, the young bull whose first calves show great promise. Bang's vaccinated.

And now his heifers are producing champion and first prize bulls at state and other fairs. Countess Joanne's half sister by Regalia, produced Macbeth Augusta 3rd, first in a large class at Sedalia and reserve senior champion, standing next to the Steiger heifer that was grand champion at the Illinois, Iowa, and Missouri State Fairs. The Regalias breed on. If you need a top heifer to show in 1962, Countess Joanne will fill the bill. Breed her to your bull and she will help make him famous.
